C. Damages

Plaintiff is making numerous claims in this matter: (1) negligence; (2) negligence per se; (3) nuisance; (4) trespass, and (5) punitive damages. Additionally, Plaintiff is requesting attorneys' fees pursuant to 12 O.S. § 940. As to the damages for each claim,

Plaintiff is requesting the following:

Category of Damages	Calculation of Damages
Negligence	The damages for negligence were determined by determining the market value of Plaintiffs' property before and after Defendant's actions. This difference in market value totaled $97,500.00; therefore, Plaintiff is claiming $97,500 in damages for their negligence claim.
Negligence Per Se	Pursuant to 23 O.S. § 72(A), ““for wrongful injury to timber upon the land of another, or removal thereof, the measure of damages is not less than three (3) times nor more than ten (10) times such a sum as would compensate for the actual detriment.” Based on the market value differentiation of $97,500, the negligence per se calculation of damages would be between $292,500 and $975,000.
Nuisance	$500,000
Trespass	$250,000
Punitive Damages	Pursuant to 23 O.S. § 23-9.1(B)(2)(a-b), the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) or the amount of the actual damages awarded, whichever is greater.
Attorneys' Fees	Attorneys' Fees to be determined by this Court.

D. Experts

Plaintiff has retained James Spurgeon as their expert in this matter. Defendant has been provided with his report.

Respectfully submitted,
